Reference: Administration	Policy No. 21-2019
Title: Hunting on RM Property	Pages: 1
Adopted by Resolution No. 116-2019	Date: March 14, 2019

Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to establish practices and procedures to be followed when providing authority to hunt on the RM owned property.

DEFINITIONS:

Chief Administrative Officer (“CAO”) means the Chief Administrative Officer of the Municipality, and includes his or her designate.

Leased Land means land currently included in a General Permit Agreement or in a Lease agreement between an individual(s) and the Rural Municipality of Grahamdale.

Municipality means the Rural Municipality of Grahamdale.

Vacant Land means RM land not currently included in a General Permit Agreement or a Lease agreement.

POLICY:

That an individual(s) wishing to hunt on RM leased land must obtain written authorization from the Leaseholder/Permit Holder of the land prior to entering the land.

That an individual(s) wishing to hunt on RM owned vacant land must obtain written authorization from the CAO or designate prior to entering the land by providing the following information in writing:

- the name(s) of anyone requesting permission to hunt on RM vacant land.
- the date(s) the individual(s) will be entering the RM vacant land.
- the legal description of the vacant land on which the individual(s) wish to hunt.
- a current valid hunting licence for any individual(s) requesting permission to enter RM vacant land for the purpose of hunting.
